Please note the following:

- the branch of your bank must reside in the same country as your permanent residential address as disclosed by you on the front page of this document
- only funds from a bank in this country will be accepted

Please note it is not our custom or practice to accept funds for a client's account from third parties, nor to make third party payments. ie our policy is to only make or receive payments to/from a bank account in the client's name.

 Please note that if the bank account is a joint account, we will require both holders of the bank account to authorise payments from this account to AMT Futures Limited. Please click here to complete this authority.
